SCHOOL EXPECTATIONS

Attendance at Green Valley Christian School is a privilege, not a right. Please understand that Green Valley Christian School sets high standards and values relating to a child's behavior and expects conformity to the school's standards. Students are enrolled based upon school performance, acceptable conduct and behavior, ability to get along with their peers, evidence of character, and their ability to fit into Green Valley Christian School's programs. Green Valley Christian School expects parents to work cooperatively and respectfully with school personnel to insure that their child complies with the conduct and behavior standards of Green Valley Christian School.

All students enrolled in Green Valley Christian School are expected to come with a heart and desire bent towards learning (as opposed to play or disruption). Green Valley Christian School expects students to arrive demonstrating and practicing character traits such as but not limited to the following:

Attentiveness	Willing Attitude
Obedience to those in authority over them	Diligence in completion of work and study
Responsibility for work and behavior	Self-control
Respectfulness	Promptness

It is crucial that all students understand school is a place where learning is to be taken seriously. GVCS seeks to develop the heart, soul, mind and body. It seeks to develop competence, character, and community. Should a student choose to continually distract others, waste valuable classroom time, resist compliance with the teacher, and rob others of the learning and teaching experience, his/her enrollment at Green Valley Christian School will be terminated.

Green Valley Christian School's standards do not permit students to smoke, drink alcoholic beverages, use or possess illegal drugs, carry weapons, cause physical injury to others, or threaten the safety of others, commit theft or extortion, disrupt school activities or otherwise engage in disobedient or inappropriate behavior. If a student of Green Valley is found to have engaged in any of the above, the student's enrollment may be terminated.

I understand acceptance to Green Valley Christian School is based on my child's willingness to learn, attendance, conduct, and overall character. I also understand that we, as the parents of a child enrolled at Green Valley Christian School, will be required to abide by certain standards of behavior and that our failure to meet these standards could result in the termination of our child's enrollment.

I have read the above statements and will read the Parent Handbook and abide by all rules, regulations, policies, standards of behavior and decisions as established and made by Green Valley Christian School.
